

The Princess and the Wizard

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

- Can you talk about how Princess Eliza felt when her friends were turned to stone?
- Can you talk about how the Wizard felt when he didn't get invited to Princess Eliza's birthday party?

Maths

- Can you complete the daily maths sheets based 'The Princess and The Wizard'?
- Watch some Numberblocks episodes
- Have a go at an activity on Mathematics

- Can you practise the days of the week in order, if you already know them, can you practise the months of the year? Click on the links for some songs to help you!
- Make a shopping list for a birthday party. How much of each item will you need for all of your guests?

Literacy

- Visit the Ruth Miskin website and watch a video on any of the sounds you need to practise. The schedule for this half term is here.

- Use Oxford Owl to practise your reading.
- Read a variety of books.
- Interactive Games on Phonics Play Enter the details that appear on the home screen to enter.
- Read the story of The Princess and The Wizard or listen to it here!
- Can you make a birthday invitation to Princess Eliza's birthday party? Think about some of the information and details you will need to include.
- Can you write your own story to accompany your favourite picture in the book?
- Princess Eliza turns into different objects with different colours. Can you make a list or draw pictures of things that are different colours for Eliza to turn into?

The Princess and the Wizard

Communication and Language

- Can you talk about what might happen to the Princess or the Wizard next?

Expressive Arts and Design

- Can you design an outfit for the Wizard, Princess Eliza or even yourself to wear to a party?
- Can you invent a potion to stop the wizard from coming back?
- Can you experiment with colour mixing and make new colours, and then make a poster to show how you made them?

- Can you imagine that you have a fairy Godmother, and draw a picture of her?

Physical Development

- Put on some music and have a dance. Get someone to pause the music without you noticing. When it stops can you freeze like a stone statue? For how long?

Understanding the World

- Can you complete a task on Purple Mash?
- Can you talk about a party or special event that you went to with your family?
