Mrs McDonough's Messages

Dear Parents/Carers,

In worship, we have a new theme for this half term—Trust. I have shared this with the children in Worship on Monday, and we will continue to learn about how Jesus taught us to Trust, linking some familiar Bible stories as well as time to reflect on who we trust and why. Trust is a fundamental aspect of our relationships and our faith. It's not always easy, but understanding biblical trust can help us navigate through life's challenges with a stronger faith.

PTA Updates

The PTA met together this week to discuss the upcoming Christmas Fair on Saturday 30th November and Christmas Bingo on Thursday 12th December. Both of these have been hugely popular before and so we are looking for your help to make these fundraisers even better than before! There will be a notice going out to each class via DoJo to request helpers for certain stalls at the Christmas Fair. We are also holding two non-uniform days in exchange for items to be donated:

Friday 22nd November—bring in a new and unused bottle of something (anything!)

Friday 29th November—bring in an item for the tombola (could be a book, toy, new or unused item for a child or adult)

We raised an amazing £262.78 from the Pumpkin Disco. We are so grateful for all your support, and the PTA have just donated another 10 iPads to school, meaning that each class now has 6 in each class which is fantastic! Head boy and Head girl really enjoyed opening these and setting them up this week, delivering them to each class with pride. These are used daily for enhancing our curriculum, reading quizzes, after school clubs and much, much more!

School Money

Many thanks for your patience with 'School Money' this week to book your child's school lunches, Oswalds Owls Breakfast and After School Club. We are still finding some parents are having to call Mrs Jordan to book a hot dinner; please make sure you have familiarised yourself with the new system—we need you to log in and say if your child is having a free hot meal (KS1 and Pupil Premium children) or not for each day. You can block book your meals for the week, month or even half term!

Remembrance

We had a lovely Remembrance Service in school today for the staff and children. It was a moving worship, where the children and Mrs Croft explained the meaning behind the Poppy and some reflections about Remembrance. We also laid a wreath in the memory of Pte Griffiths who was killed in action in 1918 in Palestine. The wreath was donated by Pte Griffith's family in his honour.

Have a wonderful weekend, and as always if you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me via the school office or at principalstoswalds@rcsat.cheshire.sch.uk.

Kind Regards,

Louise McDonough
